Introduction

On December 10, 2025, your organization, OPPLANE INC (petitioner, petitioning organization, or you), filed a Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker (Form I-129) with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), seeking to classify JOSE, NITHIN (beneficiary) as an H-1B specialty occupation worker.

The H-1B classification applies to individuals who will perform services in a specialty occupation. A specialty occupation is one that requires theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and attainment of a bachelor's or higher degree in the specific specialty (or its equivalent) as a minimum for entry into the occupation in the United States.

You seek a change of employer and requested that USCIS extend the beneficiary's stay.

You stated on the petition that you are a custom software products for networks with 13 employees. You seek to employ the beneficiary as a Senior Network Engineer.

To process your petition and determine if you and the beneficiary are eligible, additional information is required. This request provides suggested evidence that you may submit to satisfy each eligibility criteria described below. You may:

- Submit one, some, or all of these items;
- Submit none of the suggested items and instead submit other evidence to satisfy the request;
- Explain how the evidence in the record already establishes eligibility; and/or
- Request a decision based on the record.

Note, however, that as the petitioner, you are responsible for providing evidence that demonstrates that you and the beneficiary meet all requirements. Evidence must show that all parties were eligible for the requested benefit when you filed the petition by a preponderance of the evidence.

Do not include with your response copies of documentation previously submitted.

If you are submitting evidence in response to this request, USCIS recommends that you submit:

- An index of the evidence.
- Clear and legible copies of the evidence. If legible copies are not possible, you may submit the original documents. Original documents, however, will be returned only if requested.

USCIS checks all petitions filed for this classification in its Validation Instrument for Business Enterprises (VIBE) system. VIBE uses commercially available data to validate basic information about organizations petitioning to employ foreign workers. For more information about this program, visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/VIBE.

Current Immigration Status

On February 2, 2026, USCIS issued a Request for Evidence (RFE) and your response was received on February 25, 2026. Additional information is required to process your petition and determine if you and the beneficiary are eligible. Please provide evidence regarding the beneficiary's current immigration status. If the beneficiary is not currently in a nonimmigrant status, the request for an extension of stay or change of nonimmigrant status may not be approved and the petition (if approved) will be forwarded abroad. Therefore, identify a location abroad (if not already identified) for visa notification.
